

It is concerning to think how the state could control and implement its own agenda through the registration of private schools. This is why I oppose.