

Good morning and thank you for reading my email. We are at a critical stage in protecting our environment. In the last 50 years our mammal population has decreased by 50% and continues to decrease based on habitat loss. Please put an end to listing beavers as a predator when they're just trying to survive. End cruel and destructive environment events and help put a stop to the war against wildlife. Thank you,

Linda Rentfrow