

Thank you for taking the time to read my testimony here. I support Ranked Choice Voting because I believe it supports the democracy I hope to see in our country. As evidenced in several countries and cities in the United States, it has resulted in the election of more women and marginalized candidates. RCV will encourage candidates to outreach and campaign in all communities and all constituencies.