

I have a certified designated diversion to irrigate field I harvest for livestock feed. Upstream from me there is a beaver dam that is flooding a neighbors field. It is not a certified dedicated irrigation diversion. This beaver dam is diverting water that keeps land owners downstream from successfully irrigating where they have certified diversions. This beaver dam needs to be removed. Beaver need to be controlled when they are creating damage to streams.