

This goes against the very definition of the private school. Every child and or family cannot be expected to fit in the same box. Please do not take away these families freedom to choose.