

Beavers are a very essential to create healthy water resources. They are not a predatory animal! They help reduce wild fires, create habitat for salmonid species and the filtration system created by their ponds improves water quality. Please act to protect the important role beavers play in Oregon's wild country.