

I encourage passage of HB 2844 and believe wildlife experts should be primary consultants, with scientists, working with landowners to develop non-lethal alternatives in managing beavers.