With the current public school curriculum including topics I feel should be taught at home by parents I want the option to choose a private school. To tell you the truth, private school are structured to actually teach our children Math, English, Science , Reading and writing not to mention respect integrity values and morals. Something our public schools lack!