

SB 192 et. al.: Another collection of bills directing Agency "A" to perform Task "B." We see probably a hundred (at least) bills of this type in each session. All of these directives require funding and resources. It's no wonder state spending keeps going up much faster than the CPI. How much of this is really necessary?