

The foundation of this country is built on religious freedom. Please do not use our students as pawns in a political fight that will punish those who choose a private education. Vote no on SB223!