

We saw during last year's wildfires events that agricultural workers are often asked to continue working through hazardous air quality. This is inhumane and workers need to be protected from hazardous air quality. Cal-OSHA has adopted a similar standard after having wildfires in four of the last five years. Please adopt this policy and start treating our agriculture workers with respect for their health and safety.