

I support this bill because of the proven benefits of increased beaver populations. Examples include increased wildfire resilience and improved water quality.