

Beavers are an important component in ensuring a healthy ecosystem and water quality. They should not be listed as predatory animals.