

I have suffered damage to crops and timber from beavers. Non lethal control did not work. Several methods were employed. I need to be able to remove the problem animals. A permit would slow down action to the extent that the damage might not be stopped in time. The population is very healthy. These animals need no more protections.