

This is unconstitutional legislation, in that the executive branch cannot legislate to the judiciary. That all inmates are entitled to a medial advice officer, but not medical benefits that are outlined by the Department of Veterans Affairs. Alternately, medical necessity to protect life of citizenry held in jail custody.