

Hello,

My parents are the owners of Imani Institute of Cosmetology. I am writing because this bill, if not supported will disrupt all they strive for in making there school a great place of education. Since my parents have owned Imani I have met so many great people and have watched them become amazing in their own careers. Let the students evolve in the world of cosmetology so that they can achieve their goals.

Thank you.