

I would like to voice my concern in regards to SB 223 that this bill is unnecessary and an onerous burden on private schools. Private schools already undergo a lengthy accreditation process that establishes them as legitimate and successful educational institutions. The additional process of registering is unnecessary.