

My religious preference is why I send my child to private school. Pushing non christain values disrupts my families core beliefs. I believe if private schools have to follow public schools, many family values will be threaten. Do not mandate this.