

Our forests are an incredibly important part of our state. They bring in revenue, offer recreation opportunities, and have value to both native people and the environment. Please protect our forests! There is no place for special interest groups when it comes to protecting people and the planet,