

I support SB 261. Legislators should do their job. If they feel so strongly as to walk out they should not be paid and they should be fined. Their big donors should not be able to bail them out.