

Killing contests are a cruel and wasteful practice. They teach our children to disrespect animal life and the suffering it causes. I am ardently in support of this bill.