

Please do not pass this bill! This is an attack on private schools and parents have the right to choose a quality education that is not run by the public school system. It's our first amendment right to have our kids raised and taught the religion we choose and the values we have.