

Beavers are an integrally important part of our Oregon ecosystems. I support the tools and capabilities for managing beavers for recovery that HB2844 provides. It's vital that the management of Beaver populations be put into the hands of wildlife experts at ODFW and given a chance for survival, not only for the sake of beavers themselves but for all the other species they support including our threatened salmon populations.