

The agents need the extra income to help insure a safe shopping experience for our customers as well as our great employees. Rent, payroll as well as many other costs have increased over the years without any meaningful increase in compensation.