

Beaver dams are good for watersheds. Allowing for the killing of beavers in any way, in any number, at any time, shows a lack of respect for wildlife, which belongs to all Oregonians. Most children are horrified when learning of beaver killing from the early settlers' time, let's not let this be a thing that's still going on.