

I support this bill. Eggs from wild salmon and steelhead that are raised in a hatchery box and released should still be considered to help increase fish counts