

I support Oregon's move toward 100% clean energy sources. As a community member, a mother, and a family doctor, I am concerned about the future health of our community and this is one step toward improving our future.