

Response to question during hearing on HB 2737.

A question was asked as to what other states are doing in regard to the tax on the Segal Education Award. There are currently 3 states that have already removed the tax burden associated with use of this Award. These states are Iowa, Minnesota, and Nebraska.