I am writing in support of HB 3265, The Sanctuary Promise Act. As I read this bill, it is clear to me that it strengthens parts of our current law that many people who recently voted to reaffirm it thought were already in it. In my church community and in my work life as a registered nurse, I have had the honor of knowing and being friends and neighbors of many families with members who are immigrants, some documented, some not. When I look at what brought people to this country, I have to think about what I would have done in their situations for my family. My faith calls me to welcome the stranger, to welcome my neighbor in these situations. I urge you to vote yes on HB3265
