

I love Salem Cinema. They show quality, thoughtful films that don't get played much in the mass market theaters, I have managed to get there a few times a year since before they moved to the current location.

It really is a community theater. When they needed to update their equipment at great expense. loyal followers pitched in lost of money to keep the place open.

Please support the bill to keep Salem Cinema and intelligent films alive.