

I am writing in support of HB 3265. My faith principles support my actions. My heart breaks when I think about the children in my neighborhood who are terrified each day that they could lose their parents. These people contribute to our economy and the diversity of our community. They are doing so much of the essential work including supplying the food we need to eat. This is about inclusion and protection of all people.