

I support Salem Cinema as they are a local business that is part of the community. Many big national chains have limited our local options and I believe that our tax dollars should support them and small businesses like them.