

Going to Salem Cinema was always a great time. They offered quality films that weren't offered in the standard run of the mill theater. The prices were affordable. They offered quality on several levels. We have missed going to the theater. They have worked so hard to stay afloat during the Covid 19 debacle.