

Salem Cinema is a gift to the community. Films are shown there that are not shown in mainstream theaters. When it is open, I often go weekly, if not more. It's closure would be a real loss to those who appreciate quality films and a hometown theater.