

Salem Cinema is the only theater that I know of in this area that brings "off the main screen" artistic type of movies. I and my partner love going there and have missed watching their movies. I also have about $85 worth of gift certificates that was given to me by my son for a Christmas present because he knows how much I love going there. Please consider them as they have suffered greatly with the shut down of the economy because of Covid.