

Fur farming is unnecessary cruelty to animals and has been shown to increase spread of COVID19 and potentially to create new mutations of the virus.

I support anything that hinders the fur industry when there are other textiles to sell.