

I support banning coyote killing contests. Killing contests harm our state's reputation. Killing contests violate conservation hunting ethics. Killing contests damage Oregon's rural economy. Killing contests are in effective at managing coyotes. Killing contests offend our community's sense of fairness and common decency. Killing contests threaten Public Safety.