

Being in the 911 industry for 24 years has been very many ways. However the stress it puts on you mind body and soul should in at 25 years of service not 30. We are the first first responders we may not have to carry a gun or fire hose but the 1000 calls we take on a daily basis is just as traumatic if not more so. Please do whats right for those who have given their all.