

If we wish to call ourselves a peaceful society, then there is no reason for us to be conducting killing contests