

Please vote yes on the proposed moratorium on new and expanded mega-dairies in Oregon. The world needs smarter solutions to food production that factor in climate change and related water scarcity. We need to get smarter about how we manage water in the dry parts of our state. And how we need more humane ways to bring food to our tables that don't involve industrial-style animal husbandry. Thanks for considering.