

Money buys speech and more money buys more speech; but money is not speech. The voters of Oregon overwhelmingly agreed to change the Constitution and demonstrated their frustration with the inability of the Legislature to take money out of politics and to level the playing field so all voices have equal access in the arena of public expression. HB 3343 supports that clear expression of need and I write to urge you to vote for passage of the bill.

Thank you.