

Democracy is where candidates are elected by the majority of local citizens through their issue preferences, not purchased. Our current democracy is not a healthy one. It has been subverted by corporate money, and is not a fair and just system. Unless swift action is taken, democracy will be lost.