

I support HB 2481. Law enforcement is not a military against it's own people. Law enforcement does not need military equipment to use on its own people. These products not only emboldens law enforcement to use this equipment on the public they are supposed to be assisting and protecting, but also emboldens them to use military techniques on the public as well. "When you hand someone a hammer, everything looks like a nail."