

Besides the fact that these are horrible conditions that these animals live in for their whole lives and then slaughtered which should be enough of a reason to close down the fur farms but if you need more than that there is Covid 19 and that it is spread through this process quickly should help give you another HUGE reason to ban fur farms. Do the right thing.