

Chair Holvey, Vice-Chairs Bonham and Grayber, and members of the House Committee on Business and Labor:
I urge your support of this bill. Farm workers are already under considerable stress doing hard physical work full-time at very low rates of pay in environments that are often harmful to their health. If they work more than 40 hours a week, they should be compensated for overtime hours.

Thank you for your consideration of this bill