

I fully support tracking and sharing real data of the lives lost on our city streets. Their lives matter and the least we can do is show that they counted by counting them and saying their names.

I personally know of five deaths since November. Two of whom were amputees.

RIP -Montana, Chris, Janeen, Robyn, and Brian.

Please pass this bill and give dignity and worth to these lost lives.

Respectfully,
Laura Crofoot-Johnson