

As a peaceful protester I have witnessed the police declare unlawful assembly almost immediately after it became dark out with no change in the protesters behaviors. I feared for our safety as I'm aware that tear gas is soon to follow. No one should fear being gassed or arrested for peacefully using their voices against violence and injustice.