

To enact violence against certain protestors under the guise of maintaining the peace... The bias police have when it comes to who is protesting... I believe it is better to fully establish that such violence as those enacted against antifa and BLM protestors is not permissible.