

I strongly support HB2488 because it includes specific climate change measures that reduce GHG emissions, that increase GHG storage, and that mitigate the impact of the climate crisis on all Oregonians. It also ensures that disadvantaged groups have equal opportunity to participate in land use planning and decision-making. It is crucial that we adopt practices to address inclusion, environmental justice & equity in land-use planning and decision-making.