

I support HB 2936. I recently saw a law enforcement officer wearing a Proud Boy hat; this is an obvious reason why it's crucial for there to be more investigation into anyone who wants to be involved in law enforcement. I already don't feel safe around any kind of law enforcement but knowing some law enforcement support white supremacy only enhances my distrust with law enforcement. It is painfully concerning that this isn't already a requirement.